

AISSEC

Associazione Italiana per lo Studio dei Sistemi Economici Comparati

XVIIth Scientific Conference

Growth and Development Patterns: The Role of Institutions in a Comparative Perspective

with Branko Milanović (World Bank) as confirmed keynote speaker

University of Perugia
Perugia (Italy), Thursday 25 – Saturday 27 June 2009

2nd Call for Papers

So far we have received over 80 Abstracts (but we expect many more!) for the XVIIth conference of the Italian Association for the Study of Comparative Economic Systems (AISSEC), organized with the support of the University of Perugia (Department of Economics, Finance and Statistics, Faculty of Political Sciences and Faculty of Economics), will be held in Perugia from Thursday 25 to Saturday 27 June 2009.

The themes of the Conference include all areas of comparative economics and related disciplines treated in a comparative perspective. New approaches to comparative economics, analysis of the various forms of capitalism, institutions and different models of development, trade, monetary and regional integration represent some of the suggested topics.

New deadline for submission of abstracts: FEBRUARY 28, 2009
Acceptance of submitted abstracts: MARCH 10, 2009
Submission of papers: MAY 20, 2009

The conference fee, if paid before May 31, is € 50 Euro for junior participants (up to 35 years old) and € 100 for all the others. After May 31 the fee is €60 for junior participants (up to 35 years old) and €130 for all the others. The fee includes the biennial membership of AISSEC, all the conference materials, catering (lunch and coffee breaks).

Prospective participants should send an e-mail containing the title of the proposed paper, an abstract of 150-300 words and personal contact details (name, institutional affiliation, e-mail address) to Cristiano Perugini, member of the local Organizing Committee:

perugini@unipg.it

All the relevant information will be put in due time on the AISSEC website:

<http://economia.unipr.it/aissec/>