

Seminar on The Measurement of University Performance in Australia and Italy*

The Seminar will be held at the Department of Statistics, University of Florence,
Viale Morgagni 59, Firenze, Room 32

May 25, 2011

Time table

- 9:45 Welcome speech - Luigi Biggeri and Guido Ferrari
- 10:00 Measurement of Efficiency and Productivity in Australian Universities: Concepts, Methods and Results
Prasada Rao, ARC Professorial Fellow, School of Economics, The University of Queensland, Brisbane
- 11:00 Evaluating the Efficiency of the Italian University Educational Processes through Frontier Production Methods
Tiziana Laureti and Luca Secondi, University of Naples Parthenope and University of Tuscia, Viterbo
- 11:20 University Performance Indicators: Empirical Appraisal of Non Longitudinal Multilevel Models
Margherita Velucchi, New York University
- 11: 40 Labour Market Outcomes of University Graduates and the Role of Contextual Factors: a Multilevel Analysis
Matilde Bini, Leonardo Grilli and Carla Rampichini, European University of Rome and Dpt. of Statistics, University of Florence
- 12:00 Discussants:
Luigi Fabbris, Dpt. of Statistics, University of Padua
Tommaso Agasisti , Milan Polytecnic
Bruno Chiandotto, Dpt. of Statistics, University of Florence
Corrado Crocetta, University of Foggia
- 12:45 General Discussion
- 13:20 End of Workshop

* The Seminar is organized by the Research Group of Cnvsu (Miur) on “ Sistemi di indicatori per la misura dell’efficienza della formazione universitaria”