SIS

The Italian Statistical Society was founded in 1939. Today there are about one thousand members including, among others, scholars in statistical methodology, probability, social and economic statistics, biostatistics and demography. The members of the Society are academics and scholars from public or private organizations.

The Italian Statistical Society (SIS) promotes every two years an international scientific meeting which focuses on methodological and applied statistical research.

SIS 2016 - OVERVIEW

The Conference will include plenary, specialized, solicited, contributed and poster sessions. Authors wishing to present a contributed paper are invited to submit a short paper. Authors wishing to present a poster are invited to submit an abstract and in case a short paper.

The Committee invites submissions of contributed papers/posters to be included in the program after acceptance. The poster sessions will be organized following the "speed session" format. These can be on any area of interest relevant to theoretical and applied statistics.

SUBMISSION OF CONTRIBUTED PAPERS AND POSTERS

Papers are submitted on-line. All submissions, except invited talks, are subject to a blind refereeing process.

To ensure proper evaluation, short papers should be about 4 pages long and describe the substantive problem and the data analyzed, as well as the approach and models used. Short papers should also include a clear statement of the main results and conclusions and indicate the most important key references.
